Access by IP address authentication. See sample at <http://www.bioscience.org/pdf.pdfFTE>: Full Time Equivalent includes all full time employees including faculty members & researchers. Subscribers become licensee of the Frontiers in Bioscience and access will be provided to the employee of the licensee by IP address authentication. Continuous subscription is required for continuous access. Optional access by username/password combination is available for remote access. On line subscriptions do not include a paper copy of the journal. The PDF files are high resolution and because of their size require a T1 line, Cable, DSL access or a similar service. The download time will be significant if a 14-56 K modem is used. IP address registration or change of IPs will be done by the representative of the subscriber unless the option for IP address registration or change of IP is selected at the time of subscription. Stat reports are not generated. Stat reports remain the responsibility of the subscriber. During the year, the first time institutional subscribers will receive a one time, up to %50 introductory discount for PDF file type II access.
